

New Challenges for Peace and Security in East Asia: Perspectives on Japan's Future

A Public Lecture by Mr. Motohiko Kato, Consul-General of Japan

Tuesday, November 12, 12:30-1:45

Student Center Room 211

Under the leadership of Prime Minister Abe, the Japanese government is proactively working to solve the major challenges Japan faces. Consul-General Kato discusses these challenges and outlines Japan's path forward to prosperity.

Consul-General Motohiko Kato arrived to Consulate-General of Japan in Nashville in October of 2012 by way of Manila, where he most recently served as Deputy Chief of Mission of the Japanese Embassy in the Philippines. A career diplomat, he entered the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) in 1982 after passing Japan's foreign service examination. Consul-General Kato's primary mission is to care for Japanese citizens and their families residing in the Southeast, protect the interests of Japanese companies, and promote Japanese culture and business throughout these five states.

Sponsored Jointly by: Japan Studies Program, Department of History, Department of Modern and Classical Languages, Literatures & Cultures, and Asia Center