

Latin American Studies Graduate Student Symposium

Wednesday, February 23
2011

Organized by the Latin American Studies Program

*Additional funds generously provided by the Departments of Anthropology, Gender and Women's Studies,
Geography, Hispanic Studies and Sociology*

Latin American Studies Graduate Student Symposium

Agenda

Student Center Room 230

- 9:30 – 10 am Refreshments Served
10 – 10:15 Opening Remarks
- 10:15 - 10:45 Christina Buckner
"Inca sí; Indio No: Water Privatization and Identity Politics in Andean Peru"
- 10:45 – 11:00 Mitchell B. Snider
"Neoliberalization in Ecuador: Space and Security in Quito"
- 11:00 – 11:15 Break
- 11:15 – 11:45 Krissie H. Butler
"Masculine Independence and the Birth of the Guerrilla: Moncada and the Matthews Interview"

12:00 -1:15 pm Lunch provided at
Student Center Room 206

Musical entertainment provided by

Legna and Joyce

Continuing in Student Center Room 206

- 1:15- 1:45 W. Jarrod Brown
"Un Vacío Colmado": Specters of Violence in Guatemalan Post-War Literature"
- 1:45 – 2:15 Sneha Dutta
"Alternative Media Strategies in Two Social Movements to Save Indigenous Lands: The Comparative Analysis of the Zapatista in Mexico and Narmada Dam Movements in India"
- 2:15 – 2:30 Break
- 2:30 – 3:00 Ryan B. Anderson
"Imagined Landscapes of Wealth and Desire: Histories of Value in Baja California Sur, Mexico"
- 3:00 – 3:30 Kyle Mullen
"Archeology of Archaic Mesoamerica: What We Know and Future Directions"
- 3:30 – 4:00 Gavin Davies
"Migrants or Misers? Investigating Functions, Duration and Prosperity at Mound Groups Along the Uci to Kansahcab Causeway in Northern Yucatan, Mexico"